

On 21 June, Canada also imposed financial sanctions on these four officials and on five others, including Vice-President Rosario Murillo and her son, Laureano Ortega, the Police Chief, Francisco still detained in that connection, to accelerate the closure of legal proceedings against them and the cancellation of their criminal records, and to protect all those released and their families. OHCHR also calls on the Government to protect all people and organizations expressing dissent or criticism against attacks of pro-Government armed elements and any act of intimidation and reprisals,