

the State of Nicaragua to ensure that they would not be victims of reprisals upon return to the country.⁴

Negotiations

against individuals that were deprived of their liberty in the context of the 2018 protests, especially those considered as leaders.

September, Hernández Morales was attacked and stabbed by other inmates.

On 29 August, Francisco Blandón Herrera was killed by gunshot in the rural area of the municipality