

broadcast over the same channel occupied for years by the independent TV broadcaster "100% Noticias"

expressing concern about the first press release<sup>11</sup>, highlighting that in conformity with international standards, organizers of peaceful protests should not be held responsible or liable for the unlawful conduct of others, and that assemblies should not be subject to an authorization requirement<sup>12</sup>!.

